Listen so your clients will talk.*

January 15th, 2008 9 am – 12 pm

As a result of this program participants will be able to more effectively:

- Elicit information on clients' sexual histories in a non-threatening, non-judgmental way
- Identify and discuss HIV/STD risks associated with a continuum of sexual behaviors in order to assist clients with risk reduction planning
- Raise client awareness of how substance use and chemical addiction impact HIV/STD risks

This program will be held at the AIDS Council's training site at: 927 Broadway, Albany
Directions and confirmation will be mailed one week before the program. Plenty of free parking is available.

The AIDS Council of Northeastern New York is a not-for-profit human service agency whose mission is to reduce the risk, fear and incidence of HIV infection, encourage the independence of people living with or affected by HIV/AIDS and promote understanding of their needs.
